

Curriculum Vitae

Magistrate Simone Grech

Simone Grech graduated Doctor of Laws (LL.D.) from the University of Malta in November 2004. She obtained the warrant to practice at the Bar in March 2005. Grech continued her studies at the University of Malta and obtained the degree of Magister Juris in European and Comparative Law in November 2005. She served for some years as deputy defender of the bond within the Ecclesiastical Metropolitan Tribunal. She has practised her legal profession as a litigation lawyer before the Courts of Justice both in Malta and in Gozo, and also worked as a part-time judicial assistant with members of the Judiciary in Malta. In 2015 Dr Simone Grech was appointed as a court attorney to work with the legal team of Mr Justice Joseph Zammit McKeon.

She is married and has two children.