

Magistrate Dr. Leonard Caruana

B.A. (Leg & Hum Std), LL.D, M.A. (Fin. Serv)

Profile:

Leonard Caruana obtained his B.A in Legal & Humanistic Studies from the University of Malta in June 2002.

Following which, he obtained his Doctorate in Laws in June 2005 and was called to the Bar in March 2006. In 2009, he obtained his Masters of Arts in Financial Services from the University of Malta.

Between 2009 and 2011, he served as a public prosecutor within the Office of the Attorney General and was responsible for criminal prosecutions before the Superior Courts of Malta, legal advice and drafting of legal notices and Acts. He was also a delegate for Malta to the Group of States Against Corruption (GRECO) within the Council of Europe.

In 2011, he established his own private practice which serviced both local and international clients and practiced in various area of law including criminal law, civil law, commercial Law and taxation law. He pleaded before both the Inferior and Superior Courts of Malta.

In 2016, he was appointed as an arbitrator within the Malta Arbitration Centre, Valletta.

In June 2021, Caruana was called to the bench where he today serves as a Magistrate within the Court of Magistrates, Malta.

In December 2022, he was elected as Tmember and Treasurer of the Association of the Maltese Judiciary.

Magistrate Caruana is also a visiting lecturer within the Criminal Law Department, Faculty of Laws, University of Malta and has been lecturing within that Department since October 2010.

