Dear Judge Cremona,

May I on behalf of the European Court of Human Rights, of which you were a leading member from 1965 to 1992 and its Vice-President from 1986 to 1992, offer you my warmest congratulations on your reaching the age of 100. This provides me with the opportunity to recall, and to thank you for, your remarkable contribution to the Convention system as a Judge in Strasbourg, which was just one aspect of a long and distinguished career.

With my very best wishes,

Guido Raimondi
