President Guido Raonaldi
European Court of Human Rights
Strasbourg (France)

Dear President Raonaldi,

May I most sincerely offer you, both personally and in representation of the European Court of Human Rights, my heartfelt thanks for your good wishes on my reaching the age of 100. Coming from such an eminent and learned personality as yourself they are all the more appreciated. Coming, through you, from such an acclaimed Court (of which I had the honour to form part) they bring back happy and indelible memories.

With renewed thanks and very best wishes to you and all members of the Court

Yours sincerely
John Cremona
